

Are you a swine industry professional?

The Iowa Pork Producers Association is the professional organization for all stakeholders in Iowa's pork industry.

The Iowa pork industry is a dynamic and diverse mix of professionals who all have a stake in the future of Iowa agriculture. These professionals share the same passion

The Iowa Pork Producers Association is your professional organization.

And if you are an employee in a pork production system, this means you.

and pride in their livelihood, and are committed to a better future for rural communities and long-term profitability for Iowa's pork producers.

Become a member today!

Contact your local county pork producer president, or call the IPPA at 800-372-7675.

Visit us at www.iowapork.org

IOWA PORK
PRODUCERS ASSOCIATION

Membership Benefits

- Iowa Pork Producer magazine
- IPPA News for Members e-newsletter
- Iowa Pork Congress registration discount
- Certification programs
- Networking opportunities
- Public relations services
- Educational conferences, workshops and seminars
- Local, state and national leadership opportunities
- National Pork Producers Council membership
- County pork producer organization membership

Additionally...

- All members have representation on the state and federal level
- All members are encouraged to give input on IPPA policy positions

The IPPA Bylaws state:

An IPPA voting member can be anyone who is actively engaged in the production of porcine animals in Iowa, or a spouse of such an individual. An individual is “actively engaged in” if that individual is an owner, operator, contract feeder, manager or employee of an enterprise involved in the production of porcine animals.

