The Iowa Pork Producers Association relies on committees to provide program direction to the Board of Directors and staff. Nearly 200 pork producers and allied industry representatives serve on one or more of the 11 working committees. People like Trent Thiele, Elma; Curtis Meier, Clarinda; and Marv Van Den Top, Boyden, lend their expertise to help make decisions for the betterment of the Iowa pork industry.

Committee involvement is open to anyone with interest. Each committee meets via conference call, Zoom, or in person at IPPA in Clive three to four times a year. Meals are provided and mileage is reimbursed if travel is needed.
