

IOWA
PORK.
PRODUCERS ASSOCIATION

Successful farmers. Enriched lives.

Official Rules Iowa's Best Breaded Pork Tenderloin Contest

1. Nominated restaurants should have year-round, regular hours and feature a hand-breaded pork tenderloin sandwich on their daily menu.
2. Breaded pork tenderloins can be either bread crumb style or battered and fried.
3. Breaded pork fritters do not qualify.
4. Nominations are open every spring for a six-week period (approximately) at www.iowapork.org. Paper nomination forms can be requested.
5. Nominations cannot be sent in by the owner or operator of the restaurant.
6. Nominations made via e-mail or social media will not be counted.
7. Only one nomination per person per year can be submitted. Duplicates will be deleted.
8. Every individual who nominates the winning restaurant will be placed in a drawing to win $100 from IPPA. Winner notified in October.
9. The top 5 restaurants with the most nominations from each of our eight IPPA districts will be judged in round one making a Top 40. The Restaurant and Foodservice Committee reserves the right to include additional restaurants to the judging process as they deem fit and eliminate ineligible restaurants.
10. The Top 40 are judged by our members/affiliates around the state.
11. The results from the Top 40 are reviewed by members of the IPPA Restaurant and Foodservice committee and a Top 5 are selected.
12. A panel appointed by the Restaurant and Foodservice Committee judges the Top 5 and selects a 1st and 2nd place winner.
13. The Top 5 and 1st and 2nd place winners are all announced during October Pork Month.
14. The 1st place winning restaurant will receive a plaque, an outdoor banner and $500 from the Iowa Pork Producers Association. The 2nd place winning restaurant will receive a plaque and $250. The remaining three in the Top 5 receive a small plaque.
15. The 1st place winning restaurant is ineligible from the competition for 5 years after winning the award. The 2nd place restaurant and others in the top 5 remain eligible.